7. REPORT ON THE COMMITTEES' WORK

He reported that all committees have convened, and two workshops have been conducted. Each committee has continued to work diligently, aligning their efforts with the established committee work programme.

The LAP noted the report.

8. UPDATE ON THE CHANGE OF STATUS

The Secretary-General Francis Zachariae briefed the panel on the Change of Status of the association to an inter-governmental organization. He indicated that to this date, 35 Member States have ratified, acceded or accepted the Convention which entered into force on 22 August 2024. He reminded the panel that in order to be eligible to stand for election to the council states would have to deposit their instrument of ratification and declare their candidacy two months before the General Assembly at the latest.

He then showed that the Basic Documents would consist of the Convention, The General Regulations, Rules of Procedure and the Staff Rules. He explained that the Staff Rules were approved at the second transition council and the General and Financial Regulations were thoroughly discussed at a conference held in Tokyo in November 2023 and were ready for the General Assembly in Singapore.

The transition arrangements were going smoothly but the transfer of all assets and liabilities from the old association would take some time. The association would still exist in parallel of the new organization until the transfer of assets is complete.

The third transition council was planned in December 2024 and should be the last.

9. UPDATE ON THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY

The Secretary-General showed the detailed timeline and specific deadlines for the General Assembly. He indicated that the third transition council should review the papers in time for the deadline to the General Assembly which was set at 18 December 2024. He then presented the programme of the week for the General Assembly as well as the draft agenda.

He also indicated that there would be an Industrial Affiliate Members General Assembly and the first Council of the IGO that would be held immediately after the General Assembly.

10. REQUEST FROM THE COUNCIL ABOUT ADVERTISING UNDER THE NEW STATUS

Input paper LAP27-10.1 refers.

The Chair Christina Schneider introduced the input paper. She specified that this issue was considered by a French lawyer who advised that if there was not profit made from advertising, it should be acceptable under the IGO status.

The delegate from France raised a few questions:

- Quoting 13.1(c) of the Convention, which deals with funding of the IGO and says that funding may come from 'other sources agreed by Council', the delegate from France asked whether advertising revenues could be classed as 'another source'.
- Should potential advertisers be required to be up to date with membership fees before they can publish advertisements?
- Should there be guidelines on advertising to ensure impartiality and protect reputation?
- Should advertising opportunities be open to any third parties or just to Affiliate Industrial members? If so, should there be some rules or a system for ensuring fair treatment and a transparent pricing structure?
- If there is a surplus of income, what will be done with it?

As a comparison, the delegate from the Netherlands indicated that the organisations that are part of the United Nations do not have advertisement in their publications, however, IALA is not a body of the United Nations and therefore not bound by these rules.

The delegate from Australia added that the organisation is unusual in having an industrial members category unlike other organizations and that this was a long-standing benefit for the members. There may be however a need for more transparency of the process.

The delegate from Brazil added that the income received from advertising by industrial members was important to the feasibility of hosting events such as Conventions and General Assemblies.

The delegate from Finland added that IMO has an advertising policy for its magazine and IALA may want to seek inspiration from it to draft its own policy.

The LAP was not able to identify any legal problems with the concept of advertising in the e-bulletin and considered that the key considerations related to governance issues such as conflict of interest and undue influence resulting.

The chair summarized the outcome of the comments received from the floor and concluded that there was a necessity for a more formal way to proceed regarding advertising in the e-Bulletin of the Organization. She suggested that the Secretariat develop internal guidance on this.

The delegate from Portugal enquired about other instances where the Organization may need to develop guidance for Industrial members to advertise or sponsor events.

The chair added that the document to be prepared by the secretariat should include the different types of advertising and sponsoring opportunities offered to industrial members by the Organization and address the questions raised by the French delegate.

Action item 1

The Secretariat will draft a liaison note to the transition Council and prepare a draft policy on advertising and sponsoring of events as an input paper to LAP 28.

11. LIAISON NOTE FROM DTEC ABOUT EMERGING TECHNOLOGIES

Input paper LAP27-11.1 refers.

The Technical Operation Manager Minsu Jeon introduced the document.

LAP27 has discussed in principle the status of G1153 after the change of status to an IGO. During the discussion, it was taken into account that G1153 currently follows two objectives, supporting national administrations in their conduct to follow and assess emerging technologies and providing a template for the work of the working group in DTEC to follow and assess emerging technologies being considered an internal paper within the Committee. After some discussions, the panel recommended:

- Deletion of all references to the working group and the internal work of the DTEC Committee on assessing emerging technologies in the Guideline.
- Keeping G1153 as a Guideline including the template to assess emerging technologies and as a result give support and help to IALA members in conducting such assessments, e.g. on a national level.
- Using the assessment of emerging technologies as conducted by the working group of DTEC as an internal paper of the Committee supporting its work.

Action item 2

The Secretariat will draft a liaison note about the decision by LAP including the proposed and adapted draft G1153 for DTEC to consider.
